Do this by making a gross sales page for the new guide, but do not include a worth on that page. As a substitute, add various hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another strategy is to check out costs by creating a variety of duplicate sales pages with completely different costs on every page. Make sure that your sales copy is exactly the same on every web page, and includes your selling-deal with sentence. Then determine for each web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and gross sales of your book. This will tell you what your optimum worth is.

In the end, should you've written a guide that solves a downside or presents a new method, your e-book will bring in both site visitors and profits.
